

Terms and conditions for the multi-day photography course with Jochen Weber, Zagreb

1. Registration and conclusion of the contract

Registration for the photography course is carried out via the online form provided and is legally binding. By submitting the registration form, the participant accepts these terms and conditions. The contract comes into effect upon confirmation of the registration by the course provider.

2. Terms of payment

Full payment of the course fee is a prerequisite for participation. Payment must be received before the start of the first session.

3. Cancellation and withdrawal

- As places on the course are limited, registration is binding. Withdrawal from the course is only permitted in the event of an unforeseeable, serious reason (e.g. personal illness, subject to presentation of a medical certificate, or a bereavement in the family).
- If a participant withdraws after attending the first session or terminates the course early, no refund (including a pro-rata refund) of the course fee will be given.

4. Liability and insurance

- Participation in the photography course – including all practical exercises, outdoor shoots and excursions – is at your own risk.
- The course provider does not provide separate accident, liability or theft insurance for participants.
- The course provider shall not be liable for accidents, damage to property or personal injury for which it is not at fault (liability is limited to intent and gross negligence on the part of the provider).
- Participants are responsible for their own camera equipment and other valuables. The course provider accepts no liability for damage, loss or theft.
